Convenor:
Prof. Venu Kavarthapu

- Calling all surgeons, physicians, podiatrists, and other allied health professionals with an interest in multidisciplinary diabetic foot care.
- This two-day joint symposium will be live streamed from our central London venue and focus on the multi-disciplinary approach to the diagnosis and modern surgical treatment of the diabetic foot.
- International expert faculty members will share their personal experience as well as their reflections on current literature, national debates, documents from many sources and offer insight into established as well as new emerging techniques in managing the diabetic foot.
- Industry interactive symposia - learn about new innovations, view live and pre-recorded presentations.
- 1-1 messaging platform with fellow colleagues, speakers and industry representatives.
- CPD points applied for from the Royal College of Surgeons of England.
